

1. Fines and fees as currently administered incarcerate too many people. They cause an unequal application of justice.

Developing Objectives

Instructions: Thinking about the problem statement above, jot down any ideas that you have to answer the following prompts. You do not have to answer every prompt. Use the ones that help you generate ideas.

What is the thing that matters most about any solution?

What are the things you care about for any given solution?

What commonly held beliefs apply to any solution?

What are the shared values that we might have about any proposed solution?

1. Fines and fees as currently administered incarcerate too many people. They cause an unequal application of justice.

Brainstorming Alternatives

What are all the possible solutions that you can imagine to address the problem?

Caveat: By listing a solution here, you are not saying you would sponsor it, or would support it if it came to a vote. You are just identifying all possible ways you can imagine to address the problem statement.

A.

B.

C.

D.

E.

F.

G.